

命題科目：英文

A. 請將下列八段英文譯成中文：(40%)

1. Dutch study shows ecstasy harms memory brain cells.
2. RECORD-BREAKER: The Nets guard got his third playoff triple-double to eliminate the Celtics, while the Lakers will meet the Sacramento Kings in a Game 7 showdown.
3. In Taipei City, the international Dragon Boat races will be held on the Keelung River at Ta Chia riverside park beneath the Ta Tzi bridge on June 14-16. In addition to the exciting boat races, the Taipei City government will use performances and carnival activities of all kinds of to introduce the art, culture, society, culinary life, folk skills and other attractions of the capital city.
4. "We're going for firsthand life experience," he said. "We're not out for risk or trying to set any record. We just really want to ride around the whole world on bicycles."
5. Prevailing views on first language reading education will in turn affect the way in which the learners perceive the function of second language literacy.
6. Each time, somehow, the oldest man left in the tournament came through -- with an ace (he finished with 11), or with a groundstroke hit at an angle a billiards player would appreciate, or with one of eight delicate drop shots.
7. It's not just soccer at the World Cup, there's culture too. Before all the games there are performances from both local and international artists, and before the Brazil-Turkey game yesterday there was folk dancing.
8. You may have been using your left brain by focusing on the details instead of being more relaxed and childlike. You might become a better learner by using more of your right brain.

B. 請讀完下列一則評論：當 Luziao 偽裝倒地但求一勝，土耳其教練認為裁判瞎眼（不在），巴西教練大言不慚地細述兩手策略，以英文（In English）撰述你的評論觀點：(30%)

Asked whether Luziao made a meal of falling down for the penalty, Gunes said, "There was no referee."

Brazilian coach Luiz Felipe Scolari said there were positive and negative points to take from the game.

"The first one is something which is not always reasonable for Brazil and that is marking the opponent on the field," he said.

"The second is that the team reacted quite positively [ to the first goal from Turkey ] in the dressing room. The negative point is that we didn't take advantage of all the opportunities."

C. 請你以英文（In English）詳盡地細述：The Keys to Mastering Your English (30%)